MOTION OF ECK INDUSTRIES, INC. TO PERMIT LATE FILING OF PROOF OF CLAIM AND DEEM SAME TIMELY

TO: THE HONORABLE BARBARA J. HOUSER,
CHIEF UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Eck Industries, Inc. ("Eck") for its Motion to Permit Late Filing of Proof of Claim and Deem Same Timely ("Motion"), pursuant to section 501 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and Rule 9006(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), respectfully represents:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This Motion presents a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue of these proceedings is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

BACKGROUND

2. On December 31, 2008, Superior Air Parts, Inc. (“Superior”) filed a voluntary chapter 11 petition with this Court.

3. On the same day, Superior filed with the Court a list of its twenty largest unsecured Creditors including Eck (Docket No. 3). Superior listed Eck’s claim as $119,696.85 and not disputed, unliquidated, or contingent. On or about January 9, 2009, the Court entered an order establishing February 17, 2009, as the last date to file proofs of claim (“Bar Date”) (Docket No. 40).

4. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1111(a) and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(1) and (2), because Eck’s claim was scheduled as “clean,” Eck was not required to—and did not—file a proof of claim.

5. Subsequently, Phil Eck, President and CEO of Eck, became an active member of the official committee of unsecured creditors (“Committee”) (Docket No. 59). Eck’s $119,696.85 claim was widely known by both the Committee and Superior.

6. On June 29, 2009, after the Bar Date, Superior filed with the Court an amended schedule that listed Eck’s claim as disputed (“Amended Schedule F”) (Docket No. 269). To the best of Eck’s knowledge, a subsequent bar date for filing proofs of claim was not set.¹

7. Although Superior filed Amended Schedule F on June 29, 2009, in light of the voluminous number of pleadings filed in this case, Eck did not realize that its claim had become disputed until recently. Eck first became aware that Superior disputed Eck’s $119,696.85 claim on or about March 23, 2010 after counsel for the Committee brought it to Eck’s attention. Eck then worked expeditiously to remedy the issue, and file this Motion, seeking authorization to file a proof of claim in the scheduled amount.

8. Eck has been informed that neither the Trustee of the Superior Creditors' Trust nor the Committee opposes the relief sought herein.

RELIEF REQUESTED

9. By this Motion, Eck respectfully requests that the Court allow Eck to file a proof of claim in the scheduled amount of $119,696.85, out of time, and to deem such claim timely filed.

AUTHORITY

10. Prior to the Bar Date, Eck's claim was uncontested. After the passing of the Bar Date, Superior filed Amended Schedule F listing Eck's claim as disputed. It is inequitable for Superior to amend its schedules after the Bar Date without affording creditors whose claim status has changed an opportunity to file a proof of claim.

11. Pursuant to section 501(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a creditor may file a proof of claim. 11 U.S.C. § 501(a). In a chapter 11 case, "[a] proof of claim or interest is deemed filed under section 501 of this title for any claim or interest that appears in the schedules filed under section 521(1) or 1106(a)(2) of this title, except a claim or interest that is scheduled as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated." 11 U.S.C. § 1111(a); see also Bankruptcy Rule 3003(b)(1), (c)(2). Further, a debtor's schedule of liabilities "shall constitute prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claims of creditors, unless they are scheduled as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3003(b)(1).

12. Because Eck's claim was scheduled by Superior without any contention that the claim was disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, Eck's claim is deemed to have been filed. See In re Seaquest Diving, LP, Nos. 07-32068, 07-32070, 2008 WL 243670, at *2 (Bankr. S.D. Tex.

Jan. 28, 2008); In re Hogan, 346 B.R. 715, 720 n.8 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2006) (“[P]ursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3003, there is a concept of ‘deemed filed’ proofs of claim”)

13. Upon a showing of “cause,” the Court may extend the time within which proofs of claim may be filed. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3003(c)(3). The word “cause” is not defined, thus providing the Court with discretion to extend the bar date. Refusing to find cause when the claims bar date has passed “would risk eviscerating § 1111(a) and creating a major opportunity to lull creditors into complacency by scheduling them with § 1111(a) ‘deemed allowed’ status and then amending schedules after it is too late to file a claim.” Varela v. Dynamic Brokers, Inc. (In re Dynamic Brokers, Inc.), 293 B.R. 489, 497-98 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2003). Eck, therefore, respectfully submits that the requisite “cause” exists in this case to extend the Bar Date to allow Eck to file its claim and deem the same timely filed.

14. Eck respectfully contends that the excusable neglect standard of Bankruptcy Rule 9006 allows Eck to file its claim after the Bar Date, even though Superior’s schedules were amended in June 2009.

15. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b)(1), the Court may permit a proof of claim to be filed after the Bar Date if the failure to file a timely claim was the result of “excusable neglect.” The determination of what constitutes excusable neglect is an equitable one and requires consideration of all of the relevant facts and circumstances. Pioneer Inv. Serv. Co. v. Brunswick Assoc. Ltd. P’ship, 507 U.S. 380, 388 (1993) (setting out key factors when equitably considering whether creditor’s delay constitutes excusable neglect and holding that creditor’s delay in filing a claim until after the bar date was excusable even though counsel’s reason for the delay was that the bar date passed during his transition from one law firm to another). Thus, excusable neglect is not limited to situations when a creditor’s late filing was due to circumstances beyond the creditor's control, but also encompasses situations when the omission was caused by the creditor's "inadvertence, mistake or carelessness." Id. at 388; Greyhound Lines, Inc. v. Rogers (In re Eagle Bus Mfg., Inc.), 62 F.3d 730, 736-37 (5th Cir. 1995).

16. In determining whether the excusable neglect standard is met, courts examine the following four factors enunciated by the Supreme Court in the Pioneer case: (i) the danger of prejudice to the debtor, (ii) the length of delay and its potential impact on judicial proceedings, (iii) the reason for the delay, including whether it was within reasonable control of the movant, and (iv) whether the movant acted in good faith. Pioneer, 507 U.S. at 395.

17. Application of the Pioneer factors to this case strongly supports a finding that Eck's failure to file its claim before the Bar Date was the result of excusable neglect.

18. First, Superior will not be prejudiced by Eck's late-filed claim because Superior is being liquidated under the chapter 11 plan confirmed by this Court on August 27, 2009 ("Plan"). Thus, allowing Eck to file the claim out of time will not affect Superior's ability to reorganize. Furthermore, Superior has known of Eck's $119,696.85 claim since the inception of this matter. From the time Superior filed for bankruptcy through months after the Bar Date, Superior had not contested Eck's claim. See In re Seaquest Diving, LP, 2008 WL 243670, at *4 (holding the debtor was not prejudiced by the late claim because the claim had been deemed allowed through the bar date); In re Holyoak, No. 03-40446, 2004 WL 4960368, at *5-6 (Bankr. D. Idaho May 6, 2004) (finding the late claim did not prejudice the debtors because the claim was at one time deemed filed before the bar date, and the claim's change in status did not change the debtors' knowledge of the claim). In addition, it appears as if the Trustee of the Superior Creditors' Trust is still in the process of resolving claims and has not made distributions to unsecured creditors. Thus, this factor weighs in favor of finding excusable neglect. See, e.g., In re FLYi, Inc., No. 05-

20011 (MFW), 2008 WL 170555, at *4 (Bankr. D. Del. 2006) (finding no prejudice, although plan had been confirmed and had gone into effect, where claims-reconciliation process was ongoing); In re Sacred Heart Hosp. of Norristown, 186 B.R. 891, 895-97 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1995) (discussing overview of case law addressing excusable neglect and specifically holding the debtor was not prejudiced by the delay due to the debtor's status as a liquidating chapter 11 estate).

19. Second, permitting Eck to file its claim after the Bar Date and the length of Eck's delay will have little effect on the structure of the Plan or the administration of the bankruptcy because the claim falls within one of the classes of unsecured claims delineated in the Plan. See e.g. In re FLYi, Inc., 2008 WL 170555, at *4 (holding delay of eighteen months reasonable in light of the fact no distributions had been made). Further, Eck's claim was deemed filed as of the Bar Date. It was not until Superior amended its schedules that Eck's claim was disputed. Eck learned only nine (9) days ago that its claim was disputed, and Eck acted immediately to remedy the situation. See also In re Sacred Heart Hosp., 186 B.R. at 895 (finding that even "a long and logically unjustified delay which nevertheless has no significant impact on the debtor's case should . . . often be deemed excusable"). Accordingly, this factor also weighs in favor of finding excusable neglect.

20. Third, there was no reason for Eck to file a timely proof of claim. Prior to the Bar Date, Eck had an allowed claim. See 11 U.S.C. § 1111(a); In re Seaquest Diving, LP, 2008 WL 243670, at *3. It was only after the Bar Date had passed that Eck's claim was noted in Amended Schedule F as disputed.² Although Eck received Amended Schedule F, given the voluminous nature of the filings, the amendment to the status of Eck's claim simply was not realized. Moreover, no new bar date has been set by which Eck could timely file a proof of claim. That said, however, as soon as Eck realized its claim was disputed, Eck immediately sought to rectify the situation.

21. Finally, Eck acted in good faith because Eck promptly sought leave to file its claim out of time after learning that the claim had become disputed.

22. Accordingly, the Pioneer factors weigh in favor of finding that the tardiness of Eck's claim resulted from Eck's excusable neglect. Eck respectfully requests the Court authorize Eck's late filing of its claim and deem the same timely.

NOTICE

23. Eck has given notice of the Motion to the counsel for Superior, counsel to the Committee, the Trustee of the Superior Creditors' Trust, and all parties who have requested notice. Eck respectfully submits that such notice is appropriate and no other or further notice is required.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Eck Industries, Inc., respectfully requests that this Court enter an order (i) permitting Eck to file its proof of claim out of time and deeming the same timely filed, (ii) granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

Respectfully submitted this 1st day of April, 2010.
